The Galactic Sherlock Holmes
Acknowledgements

I am deeply indebted to Mr. Ronald Burt De Waal for his mammoth effort in compiling the three greatest Sherlockian bibliographies ever published: The World Bibliography of Sherlock Holmes; The International Bibliography of Sherlock Holmes; and The Universal Sherlock Holmes. Without these magnificent volumes, The Galactic Sherlock Holmes would not exist. I have borrowed heavily from The Universal Sherlock Holmes. I do not hide that fact. I have altered Ron's text in several ways, extracting the parts that are Sacred Writings, corrected mistakes that I have found, and added missing information where I was able. I must also give Ron one last tribute - N.I.D.W. (Not In De Waal). These are the entries not found in The Universal Sherlock Holmes.

I send special thanks to Yuichi Hirayama for his help with the Japanese and Chinese and Takahiko Endo for sending me most of my Japanese editions out of the kindness of his heart and bank account; to Gayane Grot-Khachatryan for her help with Russian, Moldavian, Ukrainian, and Uzbek; to Ake Chareon for the Thai; to Tony Kassis for the Greek; to Basil Keilani for the Arabic; to Susie Drost for the Mongolian, Daniel Mung for the Burmese, and Gernek Singh for the Bengali.

The Société Sherlock Holmes di France helped immensely with the French section; Ted Berman for the Swedish section; Joan Proubasta for the Spanish section; Bjarne Nielsen for the Danish; and Aleš Kolodrubec for his help with the Czech section. There so many others who have helped create this database. Thanks to every one of you.

And of course, the late John Bennett Shaw, for it was his inspiration that started this whole thing.

Addendum

Beginning with January 2013, The Galactic Sherlock Holmes has taken on a new look. The cover scan have been enlarged from 1.48" to 2" and the font size has increased from 10 to 12. Since this is an electronic bibliography, the number of pages is irrelevant. I have also placed the languages ahead of the special editions, such as Pig-Latin. Braille, Short Hand, etc. I hope you like the new look.

The Galactic Sherlock Holmes Introduction

When I was a budding Sherlockian. I received a phone call from John Bennett Shaw, inviting me to annual celebration known as The Unhappy Birthday, Moriarty You Bastard Celebration and to come and visit him and his Library. It reminded me of the note Holmes sent to Watson in "The Adventure of the Creeping Man". 'Come if convenient - if inconvenient come all the same.' How could I resist? I made the trip to Moriarty, New Mexico and to Fort Union Drive in Santa Fe, the home of John and Dorothy Shaw. My life, as a Sherlockian, has never been the same.

John seemed to rejoice in pulling out rare volumes from the shelves that lined all four walls. When he began showing me his foreign language translations, my brain went numb. I had recently bought my first foreign translation, a Polish edition of The Hound of the Baskervilles and John did not have the book in his collection. He told me at that time "If you have one of something, gloat; if you have more than one, share it." Sadly, I never found another copy of that particular Polish edition so I could have shared it with John. However, the desire to collect foreign language editions of the Canon has never died.

Thus the seeds were planted that eventually grew into The Galactic Sherlock Holmes. I have refined my database and moved out from the shadows of Ronald B. De Waal's three bibliographies The World Bibliography of Sherlock Holmes; The International Bibliography of Sherlock Holmes; and The Universal Sherlock Holmes. The first releases listed the De Waal "C" number and the "NIDW" (Not in De Waal) entries but using inspiration gathered from the Societe Sherlock Holmes de France, I decided that I needed to follow their lead in listing books in a chronological order.

The Galactic Sherlock Holmes lists books in chronological order regardless of whether or not they are listed in De Waal. There is not a separate section for English Reader or NIDW. I have retained the "C" De Waal number. At the end of each entry, in bold, blue font is either the De Waal number or a NIDW indication. In this way, the database can be added to as needed without the need to keep renumbering each new bibliography. I have eliminated several duplicated De Waal entries and added entries that were missing information and corrected a few mistakes. I have also moved entries when I found them listed under the wrong language.

The journey you are about to undertake with The Galactic Sherlock Holmes is one that must be due to a love of The Master. It is truly amazing to see how many people in the world read Sherlock Holmes. Languages I had never heard of have translations and I continue finding new ones! As soon as I do, they are added to the database. I will release at least two new versions of The Galactic Sherlock Holmes every year, sometimes more depending on what new and interesting books I find.

Finally, the last page lists those Sherlockians who have helped with book information and their email addresses. This is a never-ending project. I encourage everyone to send me information missing in The Galactic Sherlock Holmes.

Enjoy!
