

... MEANWHILE,
IN THE U.S.

BURT, JOHN HAS SENT US HIS LATEST
CHRONICLING OF
ONE OF HOLMES'
ADVENTURES...

WHAT DID HE SOLVE THIS TIME ?

A FIFTH YEAR STUDENT, PATCHIN, HAD BEEN TAKING OTHER STUDENTS'
LUNCHES FROM THEIR CABINETS...

SHERLOCK WAS ABLE TO DETERMINE WHO HAD STOLEN THE LUNCHES, BASED ON THE A VERY INTERESTING ITEM...
PATCHKIN WAS THE ONLY ONE WITH SARDINES ON HIS BREATH, WHICH WAS THE LUNCH STOLEN ON THAT DAY...

HOW DID PATCHKIN REACT WHEN CAUGHT...

HE DID NOT ADMIT TO IT FOR HOURS...

WHEN THE HEADMASTER ASKED HIM WHY HE DID NOT ADMIT TO IT UP FRONT, AND SAVE THEM ALL THAT TIME, PATCHKIN STATED, "I THOUGHT I WAS INNOCENT UNTIL I SAW THE EVIDENCE SHERLOCK HAD FOUND..." WATSON CONCLUDES PATCHKIN IS NOT THE "SHARPEST PENCIL IN THE BOX..."
