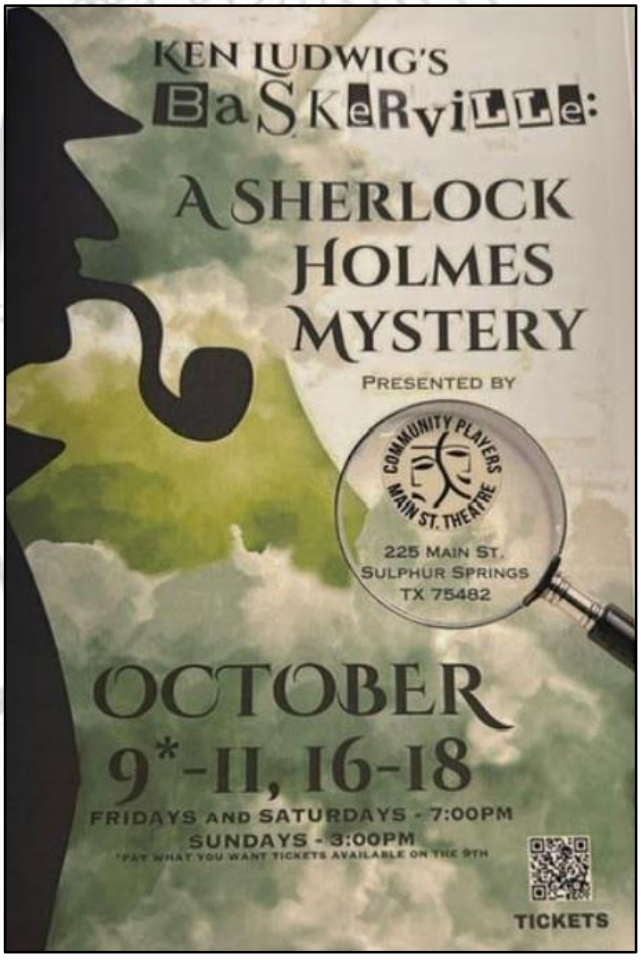
"Baskerville: A Sherlock Holmes Mystery"

By Ken Ludwig
Sulfer Springs, TX



Uncritic #011 traveled to Sulpher Springs, Texas on October 18 to see yet another version of Ken Ludwig's: Baskerville at the Community Players Main St. Theatre. On Sunday in Sulpher Springs all the shops in the little downtown are closed and the only thing to do is to go see the play. This Play was unique as it was the first time I saw Sherlock Holmes David Woody) in a full beard and mustache and a live action hound. Actually the hound was the Director (Kathleen Peterson) and Dr. Watson's (David Peterson) daughter (Elaine Peterson). She was small and had a hound head with glowing red eyes. The scene changes were used by curtains with Baker Street having two long curtains that had bookcases painted on them and one especially large curtain That was three pieces stretching across the entire stage of a forest with butterflies on It all over the trees and sky. Actor 3 stood out as she played all the women parts and did a wonderful job at keeping each character unique and distinct. She also played Cartwright with much humor and panache. Sir Henry (Cody Lee) was from Texas again and played it up just like a Big Texan would. I met the actors before and after the play and they were all genuinely friendly and congenial. This was worth the drive and it was so much fun as the actors were so inviting and some were nervous to have a real Sherlockian critic in the audience.

Here is the List of the Cast and Crew. Sherlock Holmes – David Woodly, Dr. Watson – David Peterson, Actor 1 – Cody Lee, Actor 2 – Bathan Colley, Actor 3 – Audrey Trenton, Director, Assistanr Director – Jan Gray, Lights – Rynzi Rawlsand Crew – Ash Jasso.

As a reminder, The Sherlockian Theatrical Society is a nonjudgmental society. It is our belief that any play about Sherlock Holmes is worth attending. We love Sherlock Holmes and we love live theater, so nothing will deter us off of our chosen path.
